I distinctly remember HEF saying that people would be translated to different places for ministry.

Some of you know my past. If not, it really does not matter.

What is the difference between being transported and astral projection?

I am hearing testimonies of some being used like this.

I want to be used, but without error, if you know what I mean.

Thoughts?

I think he was using the example of Philip in Acts 8 where he was transported/caught away by The Spirit(big difference between Holy Spirit transportation and occult/demonic astral projection) to the town of Azotus after ministering salvation and Baptism to the eunuch.

Does this mean we will do the same as Philip? Maybe, maybe not. I don't think everything HEF said would come to pass will necessarily come to pass. I think some was his opinion and some was prophecies spoken over him that never happened.(the example that comes to mind is a woman named Anna Schrader who 'i think' he said prophesied that he would preach to a stadium filled with tens of thousands of people...didn't happen.)

Thanks, James. Good insight.

Satan always has a counterfeit.
